The Plankinton Bank at Milwankee Suspends.

A Steady Withdrawal by Der Some Time.

SUSPENSION LARGELY DUE TO THE LAPPEN PAILURES.

To Resular Bun Made on the Bank Sinc the Scare of Two Weeks Ago-The Lappens Owe the Bank, So Far as Known, About $219,000-The Outlook for Resumption Very Unfavorable.

The bank opened as usual at 10 o'clock and did very little business. At 10:05 o'clock Wm. Plankinton, the Vice-President, appeared on the scene and almost simultaneously the notice of suspension was posted. There has been no regular run on the bank of late since the scare of two weeks ago, however. The large densetters wheeld not however. The large depositors, who did not take part in the run that occurred at that time, had been steadily withdrawing their accounts from the Plankinton and transing them to other banks. Many accounts been withdrawn through the medium of had been withdrawn through the medium of the Milwankee clearing-house.

The news of the suspension spread quickly and a few minutes after the posting of the notice a large crowd of people, most of them depositors, hastened to the bank to verify the rumors. They were met with the notice of suspension, which was written in large letters in crayon upon a half sheet of manilia pape r. The doors were securely locked, and no amount of knocking or urging caused them to open. The suspension was not only a surprise to them, but was in the nature of a surprise to the bank working force. The question of reorganization had been practically settled, and as late as last aight it was understood by those interested that the new deal would go through. Local capitalists, George Stumber and John Prisapitalists, George Srumbor and John Pris-nii, were to become identified with the ew institution and it was expected o complete and announce the deal this iorning. Shortly before 1 o'clock Wm. lankinton walked into the bank and stafed at nothing further could be done and that e bank would close its doors. In explana tion a few minutes later Mr. Plan kinton

"We have decided to close our doors. The "We have decided to close our doors. The fact is, they were after us faster than we could get in our funds to pay them, and we have thought it the best thing to do to suspend husiness for the present. A notice to that effect will be posted up in a few minutes. I am unable to state what the next step will be, or to say when we will resume business."

Five minutes later came the anyouncement of the failure.

The suspension is largely due to the failure of F. A. Lappen & Co. and the Lappea Furniture Co. two weeks ago, with liabilities that will probobly amount to three-quarters of a when the worst is known. The firms, so far as claims have recorded, owe the Plankin-Bank $219,000, and this sum is due on Lappen's personal notes, which are considered to be practically valueless. The Lappen inventory shows the estivalue of the latter's stock to be $208,-

888. But the stock will not bring a sum anywhere approaching this figure, and ahead of the Plankinton Bank claims are others amouting to over $100,000. The outlook for the Plankinton is therefore not favorable. How Lappen succeeded in placing the Plankinton Bank in the position in which it finds itself is a mystery. He secured loan after loan of $10,000 each from the bank, even after common rumor said Lappen was not wholly sound. There are many sensational stories in circulation regarding the matter but none that can be verified. The facts will doubtless come out now and will form an interesting story.

come out now and will form an interesting story.

The Plankinton Bank was the pet project of the late John Plankinton, the millionaire pork packer and hotel owner, who died two years ago. It was organized in 1887, and Mr. Plankinton was its first President. The capital stock was $200,000. On the death of Mr. Plankinton F. T. Day, who was then Vice-President, became President, and the son and heir of the dead millionaire assumed the office of Vice-President. W. H. Momsen is Cashier. It was through President Day, it is said, that Lappen had his principal dealings. Day is ill, and it has been understood that he was to retire shortly in favor of an Indiana man. This announcement was made shortly after the Lappen failure and immediately following the heavy run that resulted. At that time it was said that Phil Armour, the Chicago packer, was interested in the Plankinton Bank and with great shows a huge safe was sent from Chicago, accompanied by an armed guard, and was excorted to the bank by a dozen policemen carrying drawn revolvers and clubs. It was then said that Mr. Armour had sent $600,000 in gold to the assistance of the bank. Mr. Armour denied the story, but the news restored confidence and ended the run. The heavier depositors, however, were not deceived and for two weeks they have been gradually withdrawing their funds. The principal depositors now are small firms and individuals who cannot well afford to have their money tied up.

The condition of the banks at the hour of the suspension cannot be learned. It is believed that the showing will not be a satisfactory one. Wm. Plankinton, Vice-President, said he could not tell how the bank stood or what would be done.

Among bankers and business men the opinion prevails that Mr. Plankinton will personally see that all claims are paid in order to clear his father's name of connection with the failure.

It is said that at the death of John Plankinton Lappen always walked out with his pockets rull of money, until he owed $250,000, larger sum than one man ever Ottai The Plankinton Bank was the pet project of Robert Hill, Vice-President of the Wisconsin National Bank, in an interview this morning relative to the probable effect if any said: "There can be no material effect to this suspension. The effect was discounted some time ago when the run first occurred. I don't apprehend that there will be any difficulty about the depositors getting their money. Men behind the bank are those individually or collectively who are able to meet whatever demand may be made."

Late this afternoon the bank made an assignment, the court appointing william Plankinton assignes. His bond fixed at $1,00,000, which was immediately furnished. The suresies are Congressman John Mitchell, David Ferguson, Vice-President of the Wisconsin Fire and Marine Insurance Bank, and Charles Ray, President of the National Exchange Bank.

FIXING WAGES.

PITTSBURG, Pa., June 1.—The five collieries trawn to fir the basis of miners' wages for he last half of May and the first half of Jun show an average of 239 7-10, making the basis of wages 8 per cent below the 25 per cent basis, which is 1 per cent below the wages paid last month. In view of the fact that the sales agent yesterday advanced the price of coal much dissatisfaction is expressed among the miners of the Schuyikill region.

SUSPECTED OF ROBBERY.

Arens Candle-Alleged Depravity. Arcus Caudle, a young man to whom the ice give an unenviable reputation, was fined $500 by Judge Parson to-day for associating with thieves. Last Friday night August Barro, a farmer living at Maxwell, Jefferson Co., was lured into the alley between Cass avenue and O'Fallon street and Seventh and Eighth streets by a gang of young hoodiums and knocked down and robbed. Caudle answered the description of one of Barro's assailants and he was arrested the next morning under suspicious circumstances. Barro, however, refused to swear out a warrant charging robbery, and Caudle was sent to court on the first named charge. Thos. Keane and John Neman were brought into court on a charge of trespass. Officer Peters of the Fourth District teatified that he arrested the men under incriminating circumstances in the rear of 1616 North Broadway, with a 14-year-old girl named Amy McGill. The parents of the girl, Peters said, were not disposed to prosecute the case. Judge Paxson ordered an attachment issued and the girl brought before him to-morrow. The men admit that the child was with them, but deny that they harmed her.

Con Foley and Annie Price were each fined sits for disturbing the peace. Officer Caliahan arrested the pair at Third street and Washington avenue about 3 o'clock this morning, being attracted by the woman, who was yeiling "Polics! Watch!" etc., at the top of her voice. The woman claimed that while on her way from a visit to her sick child she was knocked down and criminally assaulted by Foley. Foley swore that the woman invited him to her room money she tried to run away. He caught her, and she attempted to scare nim off, he alleged, by raising a disturbance.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 1.-The final stage in the progress of the Briggs case be-fore the General Assembly of the Presby-terlan Church was preceded this morning by a half-hour's devotional exercises, conducted by Rev. J. T. Smith of Baltimore, Moderator of the Centennial Assembly. The leader read the 122d Psalm, the psalm of the peace of Jerusalem beginning, "I was glad when they said unto me, let us go into the house of the

When the assembly convened at 9:30 o'clock there was a notable decrease in attendance both on the floor and in the galleries, last night's vote having been the climax of the eeting of the assembly. The members o the prosecution committee were in their accustomed places, but Prof. Briggs' party was represented by Prof. Francis Brown alone. The Moderator first announced the commit-tee, the appointment of which was author-ized last night, to formulate a minute express-ing the sense of the assembly as to the vote taken upon the appeal from the judgment of the New York Presbytery. moderator.

DETAILS OF THE VOTING.

Long before the roll call of the synod was completed yesterday it was apparent that Dr. Briggs had lost his case. The first call was made in alphabetical order, and as the commissioners rose in their places and explained how they should cast their votes, the friends of the famous defendant were far in the minority. It was almost 9 o'clock last night when the Moderator put the question, "Shall the specifications of the error be sustained?" and Dr. Roberts, the stated clerk, read the first specification, in substance that read the first specification, in substance that the Presbytery of New York, on objections made by Dr. Briggs; required the Prosecut-ing Committee to amend the amended charges and specifications by striking out charge 4.

The specification was declared to be snstained by a vote of 282 to 190. This vote showed that the attendance was seventy-seven less than the number in attendance when the vote was taken Friday entertaining the appeal, the vote on which was 405 ayes, 144 nays. Specifications second to twelfth 144 nays. Specifications second to twelfth inclusive, under the first ground of appeal, all relating to irregularities in the proceedings of the New York Presbytery, were sustained seriatim, some by tally and some merely by viva voce, or rising vote. The Briggs men showed their greatest strength on specification 4, which alleged that the action of the Presbytery in giving Dr. Briggs an opportunity to reply to alleged new matter without specifying the new matter was irregular. The vote resulted 288 to 195 sustaining the specification.

Briggs an opportunity to reply to alleged new matter was irregular. The vote resulted 288 to 198 sustaining the specification.

The second ground of appeal alleged the receiving of improper testimony, and was based upon three specifications. They set up that the defendant sheuld have been sworn, that the statements and matter interpolated by the defendant into the record was permitted to remain, and quotations and extracts offered by the defendant where received as evidence without his having been sworn. On the first specification a division was taken, the result being that the specification was sustained, 262 to 185. The others were sustained by viva voce vote.

The third ground of appeal was that of "declining to receive important testimony," with two specifications, that charges 4 and 7 were stricken out, thereby spreventing the proving of the charges. These specifications were sustained without a division.

The fourth ground of appeal was alleged "manifestation of prejudice in the conduct of the case," and of its six specifications the Briggs men carried two and came within two votes of carrying another. On the first specification, which alleged that the Rev. George Alexander, Antonio Arreghi, Henry M. Fields, Henry S. Hastings and Henry van Dyke made prejudiced statements on the floor, and afterward voted in the Presbytery "not" to sustain each and every one of the specifications and charges, a viva voce vote was taken only, and the Moderator declared the specifications lost. Specifications 2, 3 and 4, alleging that the Presbytery did not try the case on its merits, a tempted to terminate it without attaining the ends of discipline and evaded the issue, were sustained by viva voce vote. Specifications few processors of Union Theological Seminary, namely, Revs. Francis Brown, Rev. Henry Van Dyke, members of the Presbytery, voted to sustain the accused after they had been charged in the appeal with prejudice, was lost by a viva voce vote. Specification 6 alleged that sundry directors, officers and sproved of appeal.

The fifth and last ground of appeal contained "specifications of error," and it charged 'mistake or injustice in the decision." The specifications charged error in the fallure to convict the defendant on competent charges, the facts being admitted by the defendant; that the judgment was not warranted by the law and evidence; that the judgment is in fact an approval of the views embodied in the inaugural address; that the judgment is vague, unjust and misleading; judgment is vague, unjust and misleading that the Presbylery was moved by unsword and improper testimony; that the judgment is contradictory in form and effect. The rotes on these specifications were taken without a division

n that each and effery one had been sus ppeal.

The roll was then called in the midst of an limost painful stillness, the spectators in the gallery rising to their feet. In their anyther the gallery rising to their feet in their anxi-ety to catch every response. The vote was announced at 10:15 by the stated clerk as follows:

Whole number of votes cast, 499; to sustain the appeal, 286; to sustain in part, 83. Total to sustain the appeal, 34. Not to sustain, whole number of votes case, we to sustain the appeal, 288; to sustain in part, 83. Total to sustain the appeal, 288. Not to sustain, 116.

After the result had been announced, Rev. J. T. Smith of Baltimors moved the appointment of a committee of fitteen commissioners, of which the Rev. Thomas A. Hoyt, D. D. of Philadelphia shall be Chairman, to bring in an explanatory minute. It was now almost 11 o'clock and the convention closed its labors for the night of second the great trial to-day.

After the committee flaving in charge the preparation of the minute in the Briggs case retired, the assembly resumed the consideration of legislative business. Chairman Baker of the Judicial Committee reported upon a complaint against the symod of Péansylvania which was not sustained by the committee, and the report was adopted.

Elder Franklin shephard, Chairman of the Committee on Milage und accounts, made an exhaustive report. It showed receipts amounting to $4,987; expenditures on account of mileage, $25,952; entertainment, $11,485; contingent and miscellaneous, $12,135; balance on hand $4,475. There were 221 presbyteries represented in the Assembly of 1880, four more than at Portland; ten prespyteries were not represented. The number of commissioners on the roll was $67, eight more than on the roll of 1892. The report was received and adopted.

The special Committee on Proof Texts, through Rev. J. T. Smith in the absence of Rev. Samuel T. Lowrie, Chairman, in its report recommended that the shorter catechism, with the prooftexts proposed, together with a statement of the methods used by the committee in prosecuting its work, be printed and circuitated as a sample of the committee in presecuting its work, be printed and circuitated as a sample of the committee were how two the proof texts; also that the committee be continued until the work shall have been completed. The report was received and laid over for discussion.

At 12:30 the General Assembly took a recess until 8 p. m., previously gdopting the report discussion.

At 12:50 the General Assembly took a recess until 5 p. m., previously adopting the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, reaffirming the deliverance of the Assembly of 1892 on the inspiration of the holy scriptures.

When the assembly adjourned, the committee having under consideration the sentence to be imposed upon Dr. Briggs was not yet ready to report.

A DEADLY ASSAULT. The words "not guilty" were scarcely out of the mouth of the prisoner when Foley, the husband of the woman, drew a base ball bat from beneath his coat and swinging it over his head brought it down with all the force

Gross dropped like a log and as swung the bat he was by City Attorney Butler and one or two policemen who bore him back before he could finish his murderous attack. Ben Clark and one or two others assisted the negro to rise and threw water in his face until he recovwelt back of the left ear and the man was bleeding from the mouth and Three teeth fell out on floor as he was raised up and before he wa brought to everybody thought he was killed. Foley, after finding that he could not do any further damage, remarked that he any further damage, remarked that he hoped the —— black —— was dead. Judge Morris, as soon as order was restored, fined Foley $50 for contempt of court and sent him to the holdover.

After the negro had recovered ness, he was asked about the alleged assault He stated to Judge Morris that he was sitting hess, he was asked about the alleged assautt. He stated to Judge Morris that he was sitting on the corner of Fifteenth and Washington avenue, and decided to go to Eighteenth and Biddle. He had seen a woman pass by but had paid no attention to her; a little while after he walked over Fifteenth street, but, hearing the clock strike 9, decided that the man he was going to see would be in bed he turned and passed over Sixteenth street. He noticed a woman in front of him, but paid no attention to her. She stopped and he passed by. He claims he did not speak to her or notice her. Two blocks farther on while on his way toward home Officer Ryan run up behind him and grabbing him struck him with his club. He was then locked up. After hearing the story Judge Morris decided that as Maggie Foley, the woman whom he is accused of insulting, had not appeared he would discharge him. City Attorney Butler objected, and the case was again continued until to-morrow. After court Groes and Judge Morris, speaking of the affair afterward, stated it was one of the most deliberate attempts at murdes he ever saw. "That man had murder in his heart" remarked the Judge as he assisted in the swearing out of the warrant.

The woman in the case was the widow of Adam Niebere, a victim of the Sarah street sleigh ride in January a year ago. She it is claimed received several thousand dollars from the valiroad company and Foley married her.

Poley is a thief of the worst pattern. Himself and two others a few years ago kicked Private Watchman Furlong to death on Twentieth and Franklin avenue. The officers of the court, in view of Foley's attack on the negro and the failure of Mire. Foley to appear, do not take much stock in the story of the alleged insult offered her. An attachment has been issued for her. on the corner of Fifteenth and Washingto

Geo. E. Shatte, a prominent capitalist of this city, was instantly killed; G. W. Giggey of Boulder, Colo., had his head cut and his nip fractured, and 0. W. Hudson and 0. E. Holden, both of this city, sustained internal injuries.

Injuries.

A number of other passengers were badly cut and bruised. Shatte had been to Mojave inspecting some mining property. He and the other passengers, who had missed the regular passenger train, boarded the special freight to return to Los Angeles. It is understood the regular freight stopped at Ravenna to do some switching, and, while there, the special came along and crashed into the rear of the regular.

He says that the universal sentiment throughout the country is against the law, and expresses confidence that it will never be carried into effect. San Francisco is the only city which insists upon the measure. Mr. Riordan thinks that the Chinese are more of a benefit than a detriment to California, as without them the fruit crop, the grapes for wine and the hops could not be picked.

CHARGED WITH FRAUD.

W. S. De Long, a traveling man, was arrested at 8:45 a. m. to-day at Elliot avenue and Thomas street by Detective Fitzgerald on a charge of fraud. He is charged with passing two worthless drafts for $75 each, one on the Walker Tailor-ing Co. and one on the firm of Burke & Kerr of Springfield, Mo. The City Marshal of Springfield was notified of the arrest.

Many Deaths and General Devastation are Reported. Horz, Ark., June 1.—The cyclone here Tuesday evening was unprecedented in this country. The number of deaths is not known, and no estimate of those injured can be formed. The injury to crops is beyond computation in corn and cotton. Fields have en cleaned as though no crops had been planted.

At a mass meeting of citizens this morning, reports were received from all sections. Thousands of acres of corn and cotton have been swept away, tences are gone and timber covering the fields. There is no chance to replant. Many people were severely injured and some killed. Relief committees have been appointed and Hope will do all in its power to alleviate the sumering and supply the destitute, but the citizens here cannot begin to do what is absolutely necessary to be done now. The appeal sent last night is doubly reiterated. The sufferers must have financial help.

Mrs. Zimmer is a plain, honest-faced old lady, with crows' feet and wrinkles which one would think had crushed the last spark of girlish love in her heart. But her daughter, a young miss of II, is very bitter against the old lady, and is positive that her mother was going to elope with many pauses and researful accents she said to-day: "Yes, my mother was in love with him and was going to elope with him. And my father is dead only eight months too. I know now why she had to go up town so much the last few days, she came home last night and said that she did not care if she never saw me or my brothers, Frank and Joe, again. But Liddell ran away with the money, and my brother Frank has left home of head of it. He does not live at home, but had heard that his mother had been swindled by Liddell, with whom she was about to elope, and he hurried to her house to learn the truth.

NEEDED THE MONEY BADLY. Messrs. F. W. Mott & Co. add a chapte to the story which points strongly towar the elopement version. They sold the the elopement version. They sold the residence at 215 West Schirmer street to Mrs. Zimmer a short time ago, and had an doubt that the tilic was clear. Hence when Mrs. Zimmer asked them a few days ago to obtain 5600 for her on the property they proceeded to negotiate the loan. They looked into the title, as a matter of form, before they transferred the money, but they did not act quickly enough, for all day yesterday some one stood at a telephone and told them that Mrs. Zimmer wanted them thurry up with the money. Mr. Most thought yesterday some one stood at a telephon told them that Mrs. Zimmer wanted th hurry up with the money. Mr. Mott that the must be a case of life and deat that when Mrs. Zimmer called last evhe had the money ready for her. Mott & Cu. say the amount of loan was $600, but Mrs. Zimmer says it $600. A more serious feature attaches tease in the matter of the deed to the erty which Mrs. Zimmer gave Lil. If she gave him the deed the property and then raised on it before the transfer was recorded, Zimmer might have to answer in court the blindness of her, love, but there proof that she did this. Meanwhile th lice are locking for Liddeli.

Justice Field of the Suprem Will Not Retire.

WILL ATTEND TO HIS ARDU AB LONG AS ABLE

Washington, D. C., June 1.—Justice Field of the Supreme Court has denied his intention to retire. The correspondent who saw him lest evening asked for information upon the very important matter and received an unqualified denial. The Justice says that while he has contemplated retirement the retirement will not occur so long as he has strength to stand up to the arduous labors imposed upon him.

It is settled, so far as talk goes, that it there's a vacancy upon the Supreme bench within the next three years and eight months Secretary Gresham will be named for the place. He has a judical mind. It has been trained by years of experience with courts. Mr. Cleveland admires him. He has an utter appreciation of Gresham's plain personality ect routes of thought.
A GUEST AT THE ARLINGTON.

The first American commandant of the queenly City of San Francisco, Gen. John D. risble of the City of Mexico, is a guest of the Arlington. At the age of 70 the popular old hero of the Mexican war is full of energy and youthful fire. For the past fifteen years he has been a resident of the Mexican capi-tal, where he has been engaged in large enterprises. His wife is a Spanish lady, connected with some of the best families of by this state of affairs. The cost of everything we produce is measured in silver, while we sell for gold. For instance, the exportation of coffse and tobacco has become quite profitable, since everything that enters into its production is paid for on a silver basis. But the shippers get gold prices for every pound they export. Mexico is tranquil and there are not the faintest symptoms of a revolution. There is no longer any church party or state party.

White Woman Applies for a License to Marry a Negro.

INDEPENDENCE, Mo., June 1.—A white woman from Kansas City, Kan., named Mrs. Lynd, applied for a marriage license this morning at the Recorder's office. She came into the office with a negro preacher. When asked to show the man she would marry she brought in a negro as black as the ace of spades. Mrs. Lynd was refused the license, although she insisted on carrying out her strange infatuation if she had to go to the Indian Territory, where laws are not so strict. She was 28 years of age, had straight

A Delicate Compliment.

From the Harper's Young People.

To be able to compliment without seeming to flatter is a rare gift, and probably no race of men are endowed with that gift more extensively than the French.

An example of the Frenchman's rare tact in matters of this sort is shown in that sweet little story of a man who had ventured to compliment a white-haired old lady upon her beauty.

compliment h white-ball the position of the beauty.

"Ah," said she, "I fear you flatter me. You call me pretty? Why, I am an old woman, my hair is white, and, see, here is a wrinkle."

"A wrinkle?" he replied. "Never, madame; that is not a wrinkle. It is but a smile that has drifted from its moorings."

AN EPICUREAN COOM. He Dines on Goldfish, Song-Birds, Imported Rabbits and Tidbits.

From the Richmond (Va.) Times. That coon of Rueger's, which has been sauntering around the lamp-post on the corner of Ninth and Banks streets from time to time during the past three months, made things lively Sunday afternoon at Mr. B. A. Fox's bird store on Broad street. Mr. Rueger got tired of the quadruped and

Mr. Rueger got tired of the quadruped and wished to dispose of him. The coon was occordingly turned over to Mr. Fox, who was to sell him. He was kept at the bird store. Sunday afternoon, when everybody was away; there began a general havoor on the part of the animal. Climbing over a partition in a show window he proceeded to the up five Abyssinian rabbits. Only one of the pets was left to tell the tale. His coonship then dined upon a handsome brahms cock in the rear of the establishment, and afterwards proceeded to deprive a beautiful tropical songbird of his plumage. He next made an attack on a number of golddah, and when his appetite was satisfied there wasn't a single representative of the piscatorial tribe left in the aquarium. Several other depredations were committed, and his coonship was making preparations to exterminate every valuable bird in the establishment, when two festive coppers crawled over the transom and put an end to his calculations. He was carried back to Rueger's but soon effected his escape and made it lively for the squirrels in the Capitol square. A small regiment of small boys were in pursuit of the animal, which, with an all-important air, mounted the Washington monument, and soon sat complicantly on the top of George's head, syeing his pursuers with an expression of mingled defiance and curiosity. He was finally captured. Mr. Rueger drove up to Fox's establishment, and expressed his sympathy for that gentleman's loss, offering to give him the coon. The gift was declined with thanks, however, and his coonship is still on the act as a judge in the recent baby show:

Capt. J. S. Nausch:

SIR—In the cause of humanity and justice, and in the name of the many mothers who took their gentle offsprings to the Exposition last week expecting a fair and impartial verdict, I want to ask on what grounds you refused my darling cherub a prize? Even a penny whistle would have been some recognition of the merits of the child, whose many good points were patent to all. Thank God, I do not need the prize and my only object in contesting was to show the St. Louis public a real blue-blooded baby. I suppose if I had been an interesting widow I should not now be smarting under the strings of defeat. That, you was influenced against my blessed baby by the siren smiles under a widow's cap, was remarked by many, and I was warned to keep my eye on you, but resting securely in the 98 9-10 points scored by my blue eyed precious I waited my claim only to have the ashes of disappointment scattered in my face. I can only any that if you should ever enter a baby, the pride of your heart, in competition that less susceptible men than yourself will be acting as judges.

Out of Order.

From the Youth's Companion.

An excuse so absurd as to put an entire court-room in good humor was given not long ago before an English magistrate. A name was called by the usher, a voice answered "Erel" and a man with a lame leg stumped up to the table and said the defendant could not appear.

"Why?" asked the magistrate.

"Well, your worship, he's ill. He's werry bad indeed, sir."

"What's the matter with him?"

A BOLD ROBBERY.

A Bank Robbed of $3,000 in Broad Day-

AVA., Ill., June 1.-The most bold and daring robbery ever perpetrated in this county was committed here today in broad daylight, by which the Bank of Ava falls a victim. An entrance made through a window rear room of the b building, which is occupied by Dean Bros. millers, as an office, and happened while M George Dean, cashier, and their imployes were at dinner. After getting into the building the burgiars scaled the partition reparating the mill office from the bank separating the mill office from the bank tapped the safe, retreated as they entered and thus made good their escape. When the cashier returned from dinner and made the discovery the news was spread like wild-fire, and great excitement prevailed. Posses are scouring the country trying to find a suspicious looking man and boy, who were seen loitering about the town in the neighborhood of the bank. The loss is not yet known, but it will reach $5,000 or $4,000.

Dedication of the Blue Grass State Building To-Day.

VISITORS GIVEN A WELCOME BY HOSPITABLE KENTUCKIANS.

nent Men of the State Present at the Ceremonies-Oration of the Day Delivered by Col. V. O. Bradley-General Exposition News.

WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS, CHICAGO, Ill., June 1.—The "Old Kentucky Home" at the World's Fair was dedicated to-day. It is the Blue Grass State building and one of the most attractive in the White City. And all visitors who go there will be given a welcome such FRIDAY as only Kentuckians know how to extend.

A large number of Kentucky citizens were present including Gov. John Young Brown and many representatives of the State Press sociation. Hon. W. H. Dulaney the State Board of Commis-mers, tendered the building to the State, Gov. Brown making the re-sponse. The oration of the day was made by Col. W. O. Bradley and was an historic address. He paid tribute to the historica characters of the State and alluded to the zeal displayed by the women in collecting their exhibit. Supplementary to the ceremonies Miss Enid Yandel's statue club, making the presentation speech. The day was chosen for the exercises as it is the anniversary of Kentucky's admission to the Union. The arrangement of the excel-lent women's exhibit is under the direction of Mrs. Sue Phillips Brown, Miss Ida symmes and Miss Lucy Lee Hill. The building is a typical representation of a Southern colonial mansion. Its cost was about $10,000. The structure is well filled with special exhibits of interest, and relics and curiosities of national reputation. Among the exhibits of national interest is the Lincoln plano, which is constructed of wood secured at the old Lincoln homestead in Kentucky. Medalitions of Lincoln and his wife are carved on the front piece, and between them is carved the notes and a verse of "The Old Kentucky Home." In the center of the Symmes and Miss Lucy Lee Hill. The build is carved the notes and a verse of "The Old Kentucky Home." In the center of the building is a life-size statue of Henry Clay, and near by, in a glass case, is a Masonic apron presented to Clay by Lafayette. The portraits of all of the Governors of the State are hung in the reception room, and the portrait of Maj. Bland Ballard, a noted Indian-fighter of Kentucky, has a conspicuous place on the wall.

THE SECOND MONTH. The Average Daily Attendance for May

une 1.—The second month of the Exposition did not begin auspiciously in point of visiors. A heavy rain fell all morning keeping thousands away and rendering pedestrianism extremely disagreeable for those who had braved the storm. The beginning of June hows the Fair in a good condition as regards hibit, without being deprived of the right of award.

The first month of the Exposition has passed, but the financial end of the affair has not been made public. The attendance for the month is given out as 1,077,283, a daily average of about 38,000. It is hardly probable that this is the average paid attendance, as many of the turnstiles did not record the first week and others did not do their work correctly. This average is more than the Fair officials had hoped for, and they are consequently elated at the remore than the Fair officials had hoped for, and they are consequently elated at the result of the first month's showing.

The dedication of the Children's Building, which adjoins the Home of the Women, took place in the afternoon. A chorus of juvenile singers under W. L. Tomlins' direction was heard to the accompaniment of instrumental music. Mrs. Potter Palmer delivered a long address, and other speakers were also heard.

FRANK BEARD'S TRIAL. The Alleged Assailant of Lumber Merchant Jones Fetore a Jury. The trial of Frank Beard in the Criminal Court on a charge of murder in the sec degree in being implicated in the killing degree in being implicated in the killing of Ashley Jones, a lumber merchant from West Point, Ark., Sept. II, 1891, in John Thomas Brady's salcon on Pine street, near Chestnut street, which was begun last Monday, is still in progress. Derrick Bernard was indicted with Beard for the killing, butgot a severance and has not been tried yet. The men were all in Brady's salcon and Beard and Bernard are alleged to have assaulted Jones, from the effects of which he died. Evidence was introduced to-day showing that John Thomas Brady followed Jones out of the salcon and also assaulted him. This is contradicted by other witnesses in the case.

AS TO GARBAGE

It is reported that one of the firs ranches of sanitary work to which Dr Homan will direct his reform energies will be that of garbage collection. It is to be hoped that the report is true, for there is no other branch in greater need of immediate and vigorous reform. The manner in which the garbage has been collecteduncollected rather—is about as stupendous an outrage as has ever been perpetrated on a victimized municipality. In many localities the garbage has been allowed to collect and rot for weeks before it is removed The alleys have been filled with rotting slops from the overflow of overloaded redeptacles. Complaints have been use-

But Dr. Homan and his fellow authorities will blunder if they endeavor to get out of the garbage difficulty by forcing householders to burn their own garbage, as has been suggested, instead of forcing the Sanitary Reduction Co. to meet the contract it holds and do the work for which it is liberally paid by the city. It would undoubtedly be a wise thing for people to burn as much of their household truck and garbage as possible. It would be an especially good thing for the garbage contractors. But many housewives have no conveniences for thus disposing of garbage, especially in summer, when its destruction is most desirable. Many use only gas or gasoline stoves, and much of the garbage cannot be burned.

The only proper course open to the au thorities is to compel the garbage contractors to do their duty. They are paid for collecting the garbage and paid again for reducing it. All that can or ought to be expected of citizens is active co-operation in destroying trash and keeping their must be made to do the rest, and do it thoroughly. They are "soldiering" now.

DEFEAT OF THE WORE BILL

The defeat of the Nohe death damage bill in the Illinois Legislature is another illustration of the demoralizing influence of corporations in legislative bodies.

The bill proposed to abolish the limit of $5,000 for damages for loss of life. No common sense objection to this proposal has ever been urged, simply because there is no such objection. The law as it stands in most States is simply an invitation to carelessness, because it cheapens human life and makes it more economical to pay an occasional death loss than to provide proper safeguards which would lower the number of fatal accidents. Railroad companies and other corporations conducting a dangerous business reason quite rightly that as long as they can keep the legal-value of a human life down to the $5,000 limit they will be spared the necessity of making costly improvements, but if the value is to be fixed by a jury the work of serious protection will have to be undertaken in order to prevent heavy damages. This is the ground of corporation opposition to such laws and it explains the defeat of the Nohe

If left to stand or fall upon its own mercal unanimity, but legislation is not considered on its merits when it affects corporations. The persuasive eloquence of their advocates in the lobby is usually successful in defeating or maiming any measare aimed at their profits or privileges This is true of every State in the Union except in Minnesota, where last winter the friends of the people gained a tem-porary advantage over the corporation

State Legislatures are in danger of becoming mere registers of the will of railroad companies and privilege mongers. In those States where there is some semblance of independence left there are occasional attempts to loosen the grip of monopoly, but they too often suffer the fate of the Nohe bill, and in some States the work of the Legislature is over when it has passed such measures as the railroad lobby other words it must be applied very soon.

AN UNPLEASANT CONTRAST.

England has learned many leasons olities from America and it is only fair hat we should learn something from the nother country. The lesson may be found in the spirited comments of the British papers on the grotesque treaty between our Government and the Czar of Russia providing for the extradition of political offenders who may seek safety from despotsm within our territory.

There is practical unanimity of opinion mong these English papers that such a treaty would be impossible with England. So well known is the attitude consistently held by English statesmen for several generations that it is doubtful if the Russian Government would even suggest such an arrangement. And even if a British foreign minister should surrender a fugitive of this description he would go down before the wrath of the Democracy, which is in spite of the privileged classes, the real effective force in English politics and

If we were to judge from indications found in recent legislation and administrative acts in the two countries we might be pardoned for thinking that England and America were going in opposite directions, the one toward Democracy, the other away from Democracy towards the unclean thing known as an aristocracy of wealth. In England the present Government is struggling to give the Irish people the great boon of local self-government, a blessing already granted the counties and many towns of England. Taxation in that country is carefully adjusted and but upon those best able to bear it, and in many other ways the rising Democracy is intelligently directed towards realizing its ideals and purposes. In this country we have had legislation within the past four years designed solely to extend the privileges of a favored class and reduce the wer of the people by limiting their opportunities and depriving them of the right to trade as they pleased. Taxation is cunningly contrived to rest almost entirely upon the shoulders of the workwhile thousands of the fa vorites of paternal government go cot free, and to crown all treaty is negotiated, ratified and signed, with a barbarous tyranny which denies all those human rights to secure which our Government was established. The contrast between England and America in these respects is certainly not a pleasing one to Democrats. There is comfort, however, in Lincoln' saying that "you could fool all of the people some of the time, but you could not fool all the people all the time." Democracy "wobbles" badly at times, but in this country at least rights itself before it is too late. The inveterate optimism of Americans too often betrays them into wayward courses, which are both costly and humiliating.

THE Columbian Exposition has not nade money during the first month, but the conditions were more unfavorable than they can be hereafter. The great show was not ready, the weather was unpropitious and the Chicago game of grab scared people away. With the horizontal reduction of Chicago prices, with the suppression of Thacherism and the injection of some discretion into the management there is yet a chance that scandal may be sverted and success accomplished. Chicago has prepared a magnificent exposition and if she will only get away from her worst traits for awhile the country may have reason to be proud of her effort.

THE legal representative of the Chinese Legation at Washington says "the Chinese Government is prepared to defend the rights of every one of its subjects who is in this country lawfully." As the unregistered Chinese are here unlawfully this declaration is not very warlike, but the fact probably is that the Celestials have discovered that the Geary law is only a bit of buncombe passed to square some politicians with their constituents and never intended to be enforced. When Congress meets the disgraceful act will probably be repealed or amended into

Besides the trust is threatened with prosecutions under State laws. Altogether the outlook for this and all other trusts is gloomy. The only favorable feature is the strange inaction of Atty.-Gen. Olney.

MUCH has been said concerning the unfitness of the native Hawaiians for a Republican form of Government, all of which s no doubt true, but what are we to think of the white foreigners now in control? Free speech and a free press, which more than all else are the distinguishing marks of a free people, are suppressed apparently because the so-called republic cannot stand the light of truth. If the members of the Government are doing anything which will not bear discussion it is safe to say that they are not doing right.

THE cock and bull story about the bargain between Weaver and Harrison whereby Harrison was to get the electoral vote of Kansas if that vote would elect him. CONTESTING A SEAT

Kelly's Application for An Injunction Argued This Morning.

MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE OF DILE-GATES THE DEFENDANTS.

ttorney Krum Bolds That the Court Cannot Interfere in the Premises-The Matter Taken Under Advisement by Judge Klein-A Suit for Damages Dismissed by the Plaintiff.

The members of the House of Delegate and several persons whose membership is at present the subject of a very warm debate appeared in Court-room No. 1 to-day in answer to a citation of Judge Klein, ordering them to appear and show cause why they should not be permanently enjoined from interfering with Mr. Wm. C. ousted from his seat in the House and replaced by Mr. John Ball.

The case as it appears on the docket is

"Kelly vs. Cronin et al.," but in the petition it also takes in Thomas Barrett, clerk of the House. Delegate Cronin and Speaker Townsend were conspicuous figures in the court-room when Chester H. Krum filed his answer and demurrer. He made the plea that the court had no juris-diction in equity in the case in that the facts presented were not sufficient, and that un-der the charter the House was the judge of whether any person was entitled to a seat.

Judge Klein then asked Hon. Leverett Bell, who represents Mr. Kelly, to read the peti originally filed some days ago in which he the House from the Twenty-sixth Ward, and was sented upon the presentation of the given certificate of election Recorder of Voters, recognized as a n that of that body and put upon a committee by the Speaker. Then without any justification the House ousted him from his seat and put in another man. Having no recourse by suits for damage, he asked for a permanent injunction and a restoration thereby of his rights and privileges as a member of the House.

The case was argued by Judge Krum for nearly two hours. He held that the court could not interfere with the House of Delegates and settle a contested election by putgates and settle a contested election by put-ting any particular Delegate into that body as a member. He also claimed that if Mr. Kelly suffered any loss he had recourse to due process of law, and could recover the amount he was deprived of which would by ordinary calculation amount to $300, his salary for two years. This remark about losing the trifling sum of only $900 caused all of the delegates to smile, but the attornay having his hast to calculation amount to 400, his salary for two years. This remark about losing the trifling sum of only $600 caused all of the delegates to smile, but the attorney having his back to them did not see it.

Judge Klein held that he was not trying to settle an election contest, but was merely trying to find a reason why the original incumbent should not be retained in his seat.

No decision was given in the matter and the Court adjourned until 8 o'clock, taking it under advisement. In the parallel case of Martin vs. Eagan before Judge Valliant no decision has yet been given.

There is much depending upon the settlement of these two cases, because if the House is sustained in their action all that will be necessary hereafter will be for the defeated members of the party in power to file contests, and upon the presentation of these notices have the seated members bodily lifted out of their places.

Graney Damage Suit. The suit of Ellen Graney and her husband.

Cornelius Graney, against the city, was on trial to-day before Judge Withrow and a special jury. Mrs. Graney and ciai jury. ars. Graney and her husband asked for $5,000 damages in compensation for injuries sustained by her while walking along Van Euren and East Marceau streets. She tripped over a meter box which was projecting a few inches above the pavement and fell, injuring her knee. The accident occurred in April, 1899, and the plaintiff was laid up for some weeks.

Dismissed the Action The suit of Helen Maud Cornelius against ceived by tripping over a pipe on the side-walk at Eightenth street and Chouteau avenue, was dismissed by the plaintiff in Judge Withrow's court this morning. This case was on trial all day yesterday and a part of to-day; when the time for arguments came around the attorney for the plaintiff stated that his client wanted the case dismissed.

Court Notes.

The will of Harriet M. Clark was admitted to probate to-day. She leaves her property to her three children, giving each a portion to $25,000 to-day.

THE PROPLE'S FORUM.

[No matter written on both sides of the shee Brrant Bible Texts.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch: Warburton says: "The common definition of man is false. He is not a reasoning animal. The best you can predicate of him is that he is an animal 'capable' of reasoning.'' This belief is strengthened and confirmed in my mind by reading A. H. Andrew's defense of the Scriptures. However, he accepts the missense of the Scriptures. cepts them literally, not comparing scripture with scripture, as a Bible student should do. When the Savior speaks in Mark with reference to the utter harmlesses of serpents and deadly poisons, it applies only to his apostice which one can readily see by reading the several verses connected therewith. Leanseveral verses connected therewith, I can not possibly conceive of the savior of me kind declaring that if any man takes police shall not be harmed thereby. What are world. We know that self-destruction is contrary to scripture, and also to moral principle. Our Creator would not endow us with powers of reason and intellect and fit us to enioy this life and insure to us eternal life, theu commend to us poison as a means of "rapid transit." That would be destructive both to the laws of humanity and the fabric of human reason. With reference to the true faith, let every man be fully convinced in his own mind, but know this, that if a man accepts the gospel of Jesus Christ as the only way of salvation the spirit of God witnesseth with his spirit that he is the child of God and heir of his salvation.

The Right to Boycott the Fair.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch: I read several communications in "The animadversions upon the Mi for opposing the opening of the World's Fair on Sunday. I will not reply to some of these authors in kind, but would remind them that if some must have the liberty to attend the Fair on Sunday the ministers may take the liberty to boycott it on week days. As a matter of fact many religious people reluse to become identified with such enterprises as fairs and conventions and such like, for the simple reason that they cannot carry their principles with them while so doing. They decided to give "Cassar" his due and permit him to manage his own affairs. The midisters are strongly supported in their movement. The Y. M. C. A. the Y. P. S. C. E., and many such powerful organizations oppose the opening of the gates on Sunday. And as our government is by the people, even the United States Court must not become too autocratic. The authors of some sarcastic communications try to "sew a piece of new cloth on an old garment" by dragging the Savior's name into their effusions, but that seems out of place. for opposing the opening of the World's Fair

Roasting the Police

. Waiters' Lockout.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 1 .- The union waiters, who were locked out last night by the restaurant proprietors, met at Industrial Hall this morning and formed in procession and behind a band of muste marched through the principal streets of the city and visited the various restaurants where the union men were still at work. All the union men without exception joined the procession, and at noon a general strike was on. The restaurants have generally supplied the strikers' places with non-union men and waitresses, so that their business was not badly interfered with. The strike does not affect the hotels. The strike is for $10 a week of six and one-half days. The present wages are $6 and upward for a week of seven days. Four hundred woiters have joined the strike.

Costly Presents From Joseph Pulitzer, Whitelew Reid, Mrs. Blaine and Other me-A Wedding Frenkfast, bu No Speeches, Except a Toast to Bride and Groom-Foreign News.

BERLIN, June 1.—The wedding of Miss Mary Phelps, daughter of Judge W. W. Phelps of New Jersey to Dr. Von Rottenburg, Secretary in the Department of the Interior, took place at 11 o'clock this morning. The ceremony was performed in the 'yellow room' of the Legation. It derives it name from the color egation. It derives it name from the color it its exquisite furnishings, consisting of the being covered with yellow damask. The chaptin of St. George's, the Anglo-American turch of Mon Bijon place, performed the ceremony.

Only twenty-four guests were present, among them a favorite brother and nephew of the bridegroom and Mrs. and Miss Bennett Phelps. Chancellof Von Caprivi, Gen. and Countess Waldersee, Minister of the Interior Von Boetticher, the Minister of Commerce and Baroness Von Berlepsch, the new American Minister and Mrs. Runyon and Mr. and Mrs. Poultney Bigelow constituted the official guests. The Legation was represented by Mr. Coleman for twenty years first secretary; J. B. Jackson, second secretary; Mrs. Jackson and Mr. Evans, military attache.

secretary; Mrs. Jackson and Mr. Evans, military attache.

After the service the doors were thrown open and the party asked to partake of the wedding breakfast in the grand salon. There were no speeches, except the toast to the bride and groom proposed by Mr. Phelps.

Shortly before 1 o'clock the young couple bade adieu to their relatives and friends and started upon a brief honeymoon.

The numerous political and social friends of the father have not forgotten Miss Phelps.

Whitelaw Reid sent three beautiful punch bowls; Joseph Pulitzer sent a diamond star; ex-Speaker Reed gave a magnificent silver vase, which is especially admired for its perfect workmanship; George Bliss, an emerald necklace; Mrs. Blaine, a silver set; Gafi Hamilton and Mark Twain, a complete set of their works; the Baroness von Bunsen, a valuable oil painting.

LONDON, June 1.—The Delly News in an article on the seal fisheries question says: Even if England and the United States agree to protect the seals, in the event of judg-ment being rendered by the court of arbitrament being rendered by the court of arotra-tion against American claims, we fall to see how the two powers can do more than pre-vent the seizure by their own subjects of vessels caught poaching. A Norwegian sealer, for instance, might still claim the liberty of seizure on the common highway of nations. If a convention is made, it must include all maritime nations.

om the New York Tribune. It is said that a public reader of some repute, making a tour through the West, happened to have an audience one night in a south Dakota town whose "hustling" spirit created a demand for anything from Sunday dog fights to lectures on æsthetics. The house was packed and the reader's efforts were followed with marked attention. Several selections had been well received, when some of the shorter poems of Arnold were announced. Probably few of the audience knew who matthew Arnold was or what to expect from the next number on the programme, but they had been hearing some good old soul-stirring verses and interest was keyed to a high pitch. It chanced that the reader started with "Youth's Agitations," beginning "when I shall be divorced, some ten years hence—"He paused for breath and in an instant a voice in the gallery shouted: "Ten years! Come out to Dakota an'yer can git one in two weeks." says a customer. Hendesson Dats, Druggist, Carmi, Ill. Sent by express on receipt of price, $1,50 per bot-

The high water in the River Des Peres from from the Mississippi have again innundate section of Carondelet have for the second time this season been forced to to their second stories for refuge from the fleod. No danger is anticipated by the residents of the district as there is no current. The only thing they have to fear is that some of their small children may fall from the porches or gang plants into the water and be drowned. This is the only damage dene by the high water of the past few days in Carondelet. East Carondelet, however, has been again visited, and the farmers in the low ground will have no crops this year.

Lower Passenger Bates Possible.

NEW YORK, June 1.—The question of rates the World's Fair is a subject claiming to the World's Fair is a subject claiming more or less attention among officials of roads running to Chicago. There has been some intimation of a possible reduction during the summer. On this point Jas. R. Wood, Passenger Agent of the Pennsylvania Railroad, said to-day:

"Lower rates may be made during the summer season for large parties, but nothing definite upon this point has yet been determined, and, so far as I know, there is not the slightest possibility of a rate war."

Mr. Wood added that the various roads were carrying out in good faith the agreement recently arrived at.

The Court Room Packed by Ministers and Other Interested Auditors.
CHICAGO, Ill., June 1.—The proceedings in the United States Circuit Court to determine whether or not the World's Fair may be legally opened on Sunday were continued to.day. That the public interest in the matter is unapated was evidenced by the throng that packed the court-room and its approaches, many ministers of the gospel being conspicuous by their occupancy of the front benches.

Argument in behalf of the Gov-being conspicuous by their occupancy of the front benches.

Argument in behalf of the Government was resumed when the judges had taken their seats, exSolicitor-General Aldrich being the speaker. The various acts of Congress, he said, demonstrated that the Fair was only international, but essentially national; that the Government had never viewed it as local enterprise, or intended to surrender its control to a local corporation as a private venture. He called attention to the fact that the Exposition had been located at Chicago by the act of Congress and not as the result of any local decision and insisted that the proposition gave a negative to all the acts passed by Congress and all the financial assistance rendered. As a matter of fact, he held the local corporation had no authority over the Exposition, not even in the matter of regulating admissions, save the authority that was delegated to it by the Government and within the rules laid down by that Government.

This afternoon Attorney Walker will reply on behalf of the directory, and Attorney Fales, a prominent Sunday closer, who has made a study of the law in the case, and to whom Mr. Aldrich surrendered a portion of his time, and Attorney High will close for the Government. The court will take the matter under advisement, but it is uncertain whether a decision may be expected in time to affect the policy of the directory on Sunday next.

CHICAGO, June 1.—We have had a feverish and unsettled wheat market to-day, but the market was freely supplied from the outside and lecally, which caused the rapid decline to 683a July. The buying around this was general. Conditions of crops unchanged and foreign markets as the second of the conditions of comparing the second of failures put all sects and comits failures and rumons of failures put all sects and consistency of the conditions of the second outlook is more settled we think it wise to limit losses on all holdings, although prices look phenomenally low. The price is undoubtedly low, and but for the finaucial situation would be selling higher. Considering the panicky wheat market corn has kept steady. Stocks are moderate and unlike wheat there is a good demand for home and foreign requirements. Besides this the general outlook is not over promising for the growing crop. Oats have been seady. Stocks are light and the demand is good. In hog product little doing. It is entirely a speal market, and present stocks held firmly possible and the demand is good. Private Wire to J. P. Grier.

an unconscious condition. An ambulance was summoned from the City Dispensary, where she was conveyed as rapidly as possible. Dr. Fitzpatrick, who was in charge, at once pronounced her sickness to be due to an overdose of morphine. He applied the stomach pump and succeeded in relieving her to such an extent that she regained consciousness and was able to answer any questions put to her she was luclined to be very reticent after saying that her name was Elizabeth Owens and that she was 37 years of age.

She insisted that she had not taken morphine or poison of any kind, but declined to state what had made her so sick.

Dr. Fitspatrick said after examining the contents of her stomach that she had un-doubtedly taken morphine. He says that she will recover. she will recover.

Nothing is known of her at present at the hotel beyond the facts stated above.

DR. DORSETT'S STATEMENT.

Dr. Dorsett said when seen by a Post-DisPATCH reporter that on May 14 last he was called to attend Mr. Owens, the husband of the lady, at 1420 Pine street, who was sick with pneumonia. He hed telegraphed he said to Colorado for his wife and expected her at any moment. She arrived the next day and nursed him until he died, which was on May 17.

Owens, the doctor said, was a stone-cutter, and appeared to have means, and was not aware of the character of the neighborhood in which he had taken rooms.

After his death Mrs. Owens called at his omice one day, when he was out, and left word that she had moved to the Richelieu.

He called there to see her day before yesterday and was informed that she was not Greenhut on a Receiver.

CHICASO, Ill., June 1.—In reply to the in-quiry "What do you know about Mr. New-man's intention of applying for a receiver?" President Greenhut of the Whisky Trust this afternoon said: afternoon said:

"Mr. Newman has not served any hotice on us or attempted to confer over the matter. You will remember that two weeks ago, when we decided upon the bond issue, to take charge of our own distribution, that a delegation of stockholders were here protesting against the issuance. While they were from Cincinnati they presented some New York stockholders, and I presume they are the same people that have employed hir. Newman. I don't know when they will file their bill of applied action. Some of the stockholders were much exercised over the bond issue, but how the appointment of a receiver can help their stock interest I cannot understand. We have decided upon the bond issue and are advertising the saie of $1,000,000 worth of them." CUSTER AND HIS MEN.

He Was a Leader, Not a Driver, and They'd Follow Rim Anywhere. rom the Sioux City Journal.
"Poor Custer!" said one of his men followed him through a great part of the war of the rebellion as a private soldier. I followed him afterward in various capaci-ties during his warfare on the frontier. And followed him afterward in various capacities during his warfare on the frontier. And no soldier of Custer's ever did more than follow him. He was a leader of his men—not a driver—a cavaller General, who asked no man to go where he dare not take the lead, and as the danger became greater Custer was sure to be just so much further in front of his column. Tacticians had censured him for that, and perhaps he would have been with us to-day had he abandoned if. But he was a dashing soldier, and would rather charge upon an enemy outnumbering him twenty to one than seek vantage ground or lay siege. He believed it to be his business to fight, and be let but few opportunities go by, provided he thought the enemy worth his mettle. "Guster had the most unbounded faith in the rank and file of his regiment, but he never reposed the least confidence in his subordinate officers. He gave his personal attention to the minutest details of his command, saw that every trooper had his full allowince of rations and clothing, and saw, too, that the men attended just as carefully to the physical wants of their horses. He would never take the word of Captain or Lieutenant on such matters. For that reason the subordinate commissioned officers hated him as heartily as the men loved him. He insisted always on being absolute in his command.

"But how the boys loved that man! Their devotion was fittingly demonstrated in an incident in the General's last battle, on the Little Big Horn. The 200 troopers knew they were hopelessly outnumbered by an enemy better armed than themselves. Eight cavalrymen broke through the Indian lines and gained a neighboring bind. They were practically out of danger, for the fine horses which the 7th were then equipped with could laugh at the best Indian ponies. But they hatted on the bluff, and looking back, saw which the 'th were then equipped with could laugh at the best Indian ponies. But they haited on the bluft, and looking back, saw their leader hemmed in on all sides by the savage army.

"One of them said: 'Boys, we can't do this!" and, alighting, he placed his carbine against his horse's head and shot him dead. Then he quietly released his revolvers from the saidle and, thrusting them into his belt, started down the slope. The remaining seven followed suit, and the little band was annihilated in an attempt to gain their leaders' side on foot. All but one were killed, and he, being a haif-breed, the second son of Theophile Brugier of this county by his first wife, the daughter of War Eagle, escaped slaughter, the infuriated Stoux paying no attention to any but palefaces. Brugier and I were friends, and he told me the incident the second day after the fight."

If Suffrage Will Do This Bring It On. From the Chicago Inter-Ocean. It was a bold move for a man to make in It was a bold move for a man to make in a woman's meeting to ask for the removal of ail hat and allow the lew mes in the rear to see the four talented actresses who occupied the platform at the Woman's Congress, but it succeeded. The spring hats were beautiful as flower gardens, and they added to the attractiveness of those who wore them, but women were here in the majority, and they listened to the appeals of a meet minority present only by sufferance. Mime. Medjesta declared that "women must not only be taught independence, but responsibility" and the ladies fest that they were responsible for the spread of their gospel to the outer circle of chairs in the hall, where a few men were spectators. It was a good beginning, and indicates that when the women are in the majority at the theaters they will be as gracious to the men as the men are to them now, and remove their hats to let every one see the stage.

STRONG FINISHERS.

A Remarkable Feature in the Browns' Play.

GAMES WON OR ALMOST WON IN THE CLOSING INNING.

Some Sensational Wind-Ups-The Bowen Everhardt Fight-A Slavin Drugging Story-Jackson Sails for England-The Sesson's 2-Year-Olds-Athletics-General Sporting News.

Horse racing as a producer of heart diseas will not stand comparison with base ball—at least asi t is played by the St. Louis Browns. the trip-hammer thump occasioned by watching the favorite close up on his field and come into the homestretch with things seemingly all his own way only to be beaten by an eyelash at the wire by old Barebones at 60 to 1, are bad enough in their way. But then there is the base ball fan. He sits in the grand stand and rubs his hands in sits in the grand stand and rubs his hands in ghoulish glee because it is the ninth inning and the score is 7 to 4 in the home team's favor. Then the Browns come to bat, two men go out and the crowd begins to make a hreak for the staircases. Then somebody gets a base on balls, then comes a single, followed by doubles and a triple to because ed by doubles and a triple to break the tony, and when the crowd sneak slowly out to the cars they talk about the beastly luck that gave the Browns another victory in and is the talk of the base ball world. They have already been dubbed the Garrison fin-ishers and there is not a team they have met that feel secure of victory until the twenty-seventh man has been put out. Yesterday's game at Baltimore when they tied the score in the eighth inning and made things decidedly warm for the Orioles in the ninth was the eighth occasion on which they proved their unwillingness to give up the game without a life and death struggle at the

The first manifestation of their disposition to win after a game seemed hoplessly lost was on May 12, when they took the Clevewas on May 12, when they took the Clevelands into camp. The score was 7 to 4 in the Spiders' favor until the last half of the ninth inning. Then St. Louis batted in four runs and won the game. On May 13, Pittsburg had four runs piled up at the seventh inning; the Browns had only two but a tally in the eighth, ninth, and tenth innings put the proper phase on the game. On May 21 occurred the fearfully contested Sunday game with Cincinnati. There was bad blood between the teams over the Vaughn incident and the way the Browns won was gall and wormwood to the Cincinnati's favor in the ninth inning but the Browns made their accustomed raily and scored three runs. They all but turned the trick again in Pittsburg a week ago by making two runs in the ninth. Cleveland got a touch of heart trouble by their raily last Saturday and with Washington on Decoration Day they wound up with four runs in the morning game and three tailies in the afternoon.

Ball playing like this ought to be rewarded with victory. As it is not always the case the moral for the Browns is to move back their reserve betting strength an inning or two, and bat out an occasional victory.

Local TURF GOSIF.

W. O'Brien McDonough won his third race of the meeting with Rosalie yesterday. The weslithy Californian's 2-year-olds are a speedy lot and so far have made a much better showing than any of either Theodore Winters' or "Lucky" Baldwin's youngsters which are also from the Pacific Coast. McDonough in fact, has been the most fortunate California owner at the meeting. Baldwin's San Anita string includes a number of really first-class performers, such as Santiago, San Francisco, Alano and Esperanza, but the inter is the only one of the lot credited with a bracket at the meeting yet. The stable, however, will round to racing form as soon as the really warm weather comes and then it can be relied upon will get its share of the money. Trainer Harding has been getting santiago, the best horse laidwin owns, ready for the Club Members' handicap Maturay. Santiago's race Monday, when he was beaten out by a short margin by Balgowan, has benefited him immensely, and Trainer Harding is not afraid of Morello walking away from him for the big prize of the meeting. It is not known just yet, who will have the mount on Grinstead's gon Saturday, but a first-class rider can be looked for by his backers. None of Theodore Winters' horses have started yet. The string consists principally cost.

Ray S. will be worked out in the last race this afternoon and given his first preparation for the job before him Saturday, when his ownres expect to capture the Club Members' handicap with the son of Speculator and Helianthus.

AT THE FAIR GROUNDS. Morello's appearance was responsible for a arger attendance at the Fair Grounds yesterday than the weather would have war-ranted. There was a slight sprinkling of ranted. There was a slight sprinkling of speculators present for the opening race, but by the time of the last race, in which the great son of Eolus was to compete, there was a fairly good-sized-crowd in attendance. The contest between Morelio and Sir Walter Raleigh was thrilling, but the Futurity winner earned his bracket, well ridden by Jockey Madison, without once feeling the whip. Jordan had Raleigh on the winner's saddle girth. The other winners were Mark S., at 4 to 5; Dr. Parke, at 25 to 1; Rosalle, at even money; Gen. Ross, at 7 to 1, and Catlan, at 8 to 6.

CRACK 2-YEAR-OLDS.

Fleet Youngsters That Are Coming the Fore on Eastern Tracks.

The season of 1893 will certainly be famou for its 2-year-olds. Each day brings out an-other sensational youngster in the East, Don Alonzo, Sir Walter and Dr. Rice were on top of one another last spring, with the resinowhere. This season Halton, Dobbins, nowhere. This season Halton, Dobbins, Domino, Bowers, Joe Ripley, Hurlingham and Declare are of high merit, with Despot, Gailiee, Montepool, Sir Excess, St. Julian, St. Maxim, Serrelia, Long Dale, Black Hawk, McIntyre, Melody and the colt by Esher—Daly promise to give them a fight at some point during the journey.

On Friday last, at the Brooklyn track, Messrs. Walcott & Campbell made Boyle & Littlefield an offer for the crack 2-year-old gelding Heliton, by Himyar-Maude L. They offered 515,000 in cash and the 3-year-old Eagle Bird, whom they bought from the same firm for $10,000 last year. The offer, though flattering, was refused, so Halton is evidently held in high esteem by his owners. The latest to come to the front is James R. Reene's Domino, winner of the Great American stakes, worth $19,000. After his first race, a purse, Centaur wrote of him as follows: "In private this youngster, who, by the way, is a full brother to that very speedy mare Correction, can defeat his stable companion, the high-priced Bowers, at any distance or weight. The stable-consequently felt justified in plunging on the youngster. Domino justified this confidence by beasting his field half a dozen lengths and literally walking in. He is a very good-looking colt and his turn of speed is truly remarkable. I doubt very much. however, whether he will last long, for he stands very straight on his forelege, and the fact that he ran in bandages indicates very plainly that he has given his trainer many an anxious moment."

THE EPSOM GRAND PRIZE.

LONDON, June 1.—This was the third day of the Epsom summer meeting. The meeting will end to-morrow. The principal event on to-day's programme was the race for the Epsom grand prize of 2,000 sovereigns. It was won by Mr. R. Marsh's bay colt Tandergree. The Duke of Portland's bay colt Raeburn, which ran third in the Derby yesterday, was second and Mr. Douglass "Baird's" brown colt Harbinger, third.

NEW ORLEANS, June 1.—Andy Bowen and Jack Everhardt met last night before the Olympic Club to contend for the long-disputed claim for the lightweight championship of the South and a purse of 1,000. Bowen had in his corner rom anderson, Tom Kenrydy and Albert Spitsfaden, while Everhardt was champloned by Johnnie Eckert his trainer, and Jack Daly.

At 11:30 p. m., twenty-six rounds had been fought, with the advantage decidedly in Bowen's favor. Everhardt fought well and took punishment bravely, but did not show any of the science that marked Bowen's fighting. Everything went to indicate that the mill would be a long-drawn-out and farcely contested one.

At 1 a. m., Bowen and Everhardt had fought fifty-six rounds. Bowen had plenty of speed and strength left, and though he hit Everhardt at will, seemed unable to fare him. Everhardt could not land at all.

Bowen was given the decision.

WAS SLAVIN DRUGGED LONDON, June 1.—The rumor is current here that Frank Slavin was drugged previous to his fight with Hall. Slavin's grogginess even before the fight was well under way seems to be the only ground for the suspicion. Hall in an interview denies that Slavin was groggy and scouts the drugging story.

Release of His Slayer on Bond.

The friends of Frank Murphy are still in dignant over the fact that C. H. Bushmann the man who killed him, should be out or $5,000 bail with only a charge of murder in the second degree against him.

Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Estep, in speaking of it this morning, said:

"The issuing of a warrant for murder in the second degree does not make it so. That is simply my judgment. The Grand. Jury can indict him for murder in the first degree or anything it wants to according to the evidence. But in my judgment the fact that two had quarrers and there was bad blood, and Bueltmann had been badly whipped by Murphy would make a conviction of murder in the first degree impossible."

The testimony of Bueltmann himself awhat Murphy's friends claim should have held him. Bueltmann stated that he entered the saloon and Murphy looked "cross like" and also glanced at a chair as though he intended to pick it up, but did not speak to on threaten him and he, under the impression that Murphy was going to pick up the chair, stabled him.

When asked by the Coroner if Nurphy made a motion to strike him or pick up the chair, as motion to strike him or pick up the chair. "No, it didn't give him the chance, I gave "No, it didn't give him the chance, I gave Bueltmann's answer was:

"No. I didn't give him the chance, I gave it to him."

This, hiurphy's friends claim, is enough to hold him for murder in the first degree.

Bueltmann is out on a bond signed by Julius Lehman and Katherine Bueltmann, his mother.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 1 .- If overtures that the attorney for these stockholders and creditors, admitted as much this afternoon, aithough he refused to discuss what steps were likely to be taken. It is understood that the course contemplated is to file a bill this afternoon asking for the appointment of a receiver for the trust. This will be followed with an application for an injunction, if the plan is carried out, to restrain President Greenhut from selling any of the $8,000,000 bonds recently issued.

ried out, to restrain President Greenhut from selling any of the 38,000,000 bonds recently issued.

The pecuniary interest of Mr. Newman's clients, he said yesterday, amounts to $200,000, and he also said that they were non-residents of the State.

"I cannot say now," said Mr. Newman last evening, "who my clients are or what they expect to do. It is purely a cold question of dollars and cests with them, and I will add that if the negotiations that are now in progress terminate satisfactorily no litigation will be commenced so far as we are concerned."

It is believed that Mr. Newman's clients are mostly New York stockholders, and it is also believed that they will avoid filing a bill asking for the appointment of a receiver if possible.

GRADUATED TO-DAY.

ville Female College.

JACKSONVILLE, Ill., June 1.—The graduating exercises of the Illinois Female College, incated in this city, took place to-day and were well attended. They were held in the Centenary church and a great many persons were present. The college has had a prosperous year under the management of Rev. W. F. Short, D. D., who has so long been at its head. He will be succeeded by kev. J. R. Tarker, one of the best aducators in the tate, and from him great things are justly expected.

that republics—particularly South American republics—are not in the habit of being protectorated by other republics, all of the advices received by the Government indicate that the property of the canal company has not been disturbed and is not likely to be disturbed. In fact, unless the revolutionists desire exercise in the way of filling up a ditch a half-mile long, fifteen feet deep and some hundreds of feet in width, or wish to tear up the sea-dike by means of submarine divers, or to crufer the troops to practice with small arms at the five unused dredge-boats, there is no property for them to disturb.

boats, there is no property for them to disturb.

The first would be apt to grow monotonous under a tropic suin, the second would require an enormous expenditure in the way of diving bells, and the third would result in the waste of much powder in a land where powder is particularly valuable jus; now. There is a well-defined impression that the canal projectors would not object to the United States Government backing the easerprise to the extent of establishing a protectorate over its hole in the ground, but there is nothing in the atmosphere of the State Department to indicate that such a procedure is in contemplation, although it was said that under the terms of the Nicaraguan treaty this Government was empowered to take such a step.

The arrival of the Atlanta at Greyt own has been reported. Capt. Higginson reported that the atlanta varies of Saturday and that

The arrival of the Atlanta at Greyt owe has been re ported. Capt. Higginson reported that the Atlanta arrived Saturday, and that he landed the marines attached to the vessel to look after American interests, but withdrew them Saturday evening at the suggestion of United States Consus Braida.

While officials of neither Navy nor State Departments will make any positive statement in explanation of the landing and sudden withdrawal of marines from the Atlanta, the assumption seems to be that Capt. Higginson landed his marines immediately on arrival without waiting to be informed of the situation, and withdrew them on being informed by the United States Consul that there was no imminent threatened danger to American interests requiring their presence on shore.

Dr. Geurman, Minister from Nicaragua to American interests required on shore.

Dr. Gausman, Minister from Nicaragua to the United States, explains that in speaking of the probability of a protectorate being established in Nicaragua by the United States his purpose was to limit his remarks to the canal, and not to apply them to the entire country.

No news has reached the State Department indicating that the American residents of Nicaragua are being treated with harshness, as was reported in telegrams by way of Salvador.

Salvador.

The report that Dictator Sacaza has resigned is fully credited here, and it is thought this will end the war, for the chief object of the revolutionists was to oust sacaza from control of the Government. The Provisional Government, already formed by the linsurgents, will assume control of affairs until the election of Sacaza's successor.

The Court-house was damaged and the residences of Chas. Scott and E. H. Moore were badly wrecked. The Methodist Church spire was blown across the street and the opera-house was injured. Twenty-three negro cabins were destroyed and shade and fruit trees and sidewalks all blown down and away. The infant child of Rev. Bowdre was uninjured.

Paid $2 for an Unclaimed Valise Which Contained a Fortune.

MONTREAL, June 1 .- Lee Stanton, an En rlish painter, bought a leather valise at the Grand Trupk Railway sale of unclaimed baggage for $2. On opening it he found 107 shares in the Western Gas Improving Co. of Chicago, fully paid up and worth $107,000. The cago, thiny pair up and worth a 100,000. The valise was the property of Louis Halberstadt, who died in Brockville, Ontario, in October, 1891, of alcoholism. He went to Brockville from Napterville, Ill. A large sum of money and some jewelry, which he was known to have had just prior to his death, were missing and it was generally believed at the time that he had been robbed.

A LUCKY PURCHASE.

A TOOTH IN HIS LUNGS.

The Case of Lawyer Conrady Puzzled the Doctors of Brooklyn.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., June 1.-A strange case, which is certain to find a place in medical ournals, is that of Lawyer H. C. Conrady, who for some time has been very ill at his residence on Reid avenue. It is nearly a month ago that he was taken ill and the phy-sician called in found he was suffering from a severe lung trouble that gave all the indi-cations of hasty consumption. The treat-ment usually prescribed in such cases was ordered.

ment usually prescribed in such cases was ordered.

The patient did not experience any symptoms of relief. He was afflicted with the most violent paroxysms of coughing and had frequent heporrhages. He grew weaker and weaker from this continued strain upon his system and it seemed as though the end was near. He had a violent fit of coughing, accompanied by a hemorrhage, when suddenly he felt something harsh come up his throat, and on investigation it was found to be a tooth. The ejection of this gave him immediate relief.

It seems that just before he was taken ill Mr. Conrady went to a dentist to have some teeth fixed and some drawn. At the time he had an impression that he had swallowed one of his teeth, but the dentist, to reassure him, while knowing it to be a fact, denied it and told Mr. Conrady it was only his imagination. He took this for truth and so did not connect the tooth with his illness. It seems now that the tooth was drawn into the lung and caused the laceration which resulted in all the trouble.

GRADUATED TO-DAY.

nmentement Exercises of the Jackson-ville Female College.

Figure 1. June 1.—The graduating crercises of the Illinois Female College, located in this city, took place to-day and were well attended. They were held in the Centenary church and a great many persons were present. The college has had a prosperous year under the management of Rev. W. F. Short, D. D., who has so long been at Implicate. He will be succeeded by key. J. R. Parker, one of the best educators in the tate, and from him great things are justly expected.

Dr. Short retired to take charge of the tate institution for the blind. The address of the occasion was delivered by Rev. Jesse It. Young, editor of the Central Christian Advanced of St. Louis, who delivered an able discourse.

NOT A PROTECTORATE.

Washington, June 1.—The probability of the establishment of a protectorate over Nicaragua has been suggested as the subject of an interesting talk by Senor Don Paulino Ortiz. Senor Ortiz, who is one of the most distinguished citizens of Central America, familiar with the condition of things in Nicaragua, is making a tour of the United States with a small party of travelers from his country. "Nicaragua." he said, "is under treaty obligations which forbid her to piece herself or the Nicaragua Canal route under the control of any foreign power, "Moreover," said he, "the Nicaragua people are so proud of their independence and have fought so bravely against undue foreign influences that the idea of a protectorate can only exist in the minds of persons who are utterly ignorant of the real feelings prevailing all over Central America as to their autonomy and self-government.

No one at the State Department knows anything about an American protectorate over the Republics—particularly South American republics—are not in the habit of being protectorated by other republics, all of the advices received by the Government indicate that the property of the canal company has not been disturbed and is not likely to be disturbed. In fact, unless the revolutionist desire exercise in the way of filling up a ditch a half-mile long, fifteen feet deep and some hundreds of feet in width, or wish to tear up the sea-dike by means of submarine divers, or to order the troops to practice with small arms at the five unused dredge-boats, there is no property for them-to disturb.

The first would be apt to grow monotonous under a tropic sun, the second would re-with small arms at the five unused dredge-boats, there is no property for them-to disturb.

The first would be apt to grow monotonous under a tropic sun, the second would require an enormous expenditure in the way of diving bells, and the third would result in the waste of much powder in a land where powder is particularly valuable just now. There is a well-defined impression that the canal projectors would not object to the United States Government backing the enserprise to the extent of establishing a protectorate over its hole in the ground, but there is nothing in the atmosphere of the State Department to indicate that such a procedure is in contemplation, although it was said that under the terms of the Nicaraguan treaty this Government was empowered to take such a step.

The arrival of the Atlanta at Greyt own has been re ported. Capt. Higginson reported that the Atlanta arrived Saturday, and that he landed the marines attached to the vessel to look after american interests, but withdrew them Saturday evening at the suggestion of United States Consu Braida.

While officials of neither Navy nor State Departments will make any positive statement in explanation of the landing and sudden withdrawal of marines from the Atlanta, the assumption seems to be that Capt. Higginson landed his marines immediately on arrival without waiting to be informed of the situation, and withdrew them on being informed by the United States Consul that there was no imminent threatened danger to American interests requiring their presence on shore.

Dr. Gaurman, Minister from Nicaragua to the United States, explains that in speaking of the probability of a protectorate being established in Nicaragua by the United States his purpose was to limit his remarks to the canal, and not to apply them to the antira country.

entire country.

No news has reached the State Department indicating that the American residents of Nicaragua are being treated with harshness, as was reported in telegrams by way of Salvador.

Salvador.

The report that Dictator Saeaza has resigned is fully credited here, and it is thought this will end the war, for the chief object of the revolutionists was to oust Saeaza from control of the Government. The Provisional Government, already formed by the insurgents, will assume control of affairs until the election of Saeaza's successor.

Wm. H. Johnson Values His Wife's Affections at $50,000.

Fr. Scorr, Kan., June 1.-Wm. H. Johnson of Zanesville, O., defendant in the famous Johnson divorce case pending in the District Court in this county, to-day filed the papers in an action for $50,000 damages in the United States Court here against J. A. Durkee. wealthy widower, on the grounds that Mr. Durkee alienated the affections of his wife. Durkee allenated the affections of his wife.
Mr. Durkee is President of the Durkee Coal Co, with offices at Kansas City and operating in Southern Kansas and Missouri, and his wealth is estimated at several hundred thousands. Since before the first trial of the Johnson divorce case he has been paying attentions to Mrs. Johnson and gossip has had his name connected with the divorce proceedings. He is prominent in society, as is Mrs. Johnson, and no little flutter has been created by Mr. Johnson's action.

Contained a Fortune. MONTREAL, June 1 .- Lee Stanton, an En lish painter, bought a leather valise at the Grand Trunk Railway sale of unclaimed bagin the Western Gas Improving Co. of Chicago, fully paid up and worth $107,000. The valise was the property of Louis Halberstadt, who died in Brockvine, Ontario, in October, 1891, of alcoholism. He went to Brockville from Napierville, Ill. A large sum of money and some jeweiry, which he was known to have had just prior to his death, were missing and it was generally believed at the time that he had been robbed.

Creditors of the Distilling and Cattle-CHICAGO, Ill., June 1 .- If overtures that have been made by certain stockholders and creditors of the Distilling and Cattle-feeding Co. to the directors of that organization are not accepted there is strong probability that the trust will find itself confronted with additional legal proceedings. Jacob Newman, the attorney for these stockholders and cred-

the attorney for these stockholders and creditors, admitted as much this afternoon, aithough he refused to discuss what steps were likely to be taken. It is understood that the course contemplated is to file a bill this afternoon asking for the appointment of a receiver for the trust. This will be followed with an application for an injunction, if the plan is carried out, to restrain President Greenhut from selling any of the $5,000,000 bonds recently issued.

The pecuniary interest of Mr. Newman's clients, he said yesterday, amounts to $200,000, and he also said that they were non-residents of the State.

"I cannot say now," said Mr. Newman last evening, "who my clients are or what they expect to do. It is purely a cold question of dollars and cents with them, and I will add that if the negotiations that are now in progress terminate satisfactorily no litigation will be commenced so far as we are concerned."

It seems that just before he was taken ill Mr. Conrady went to a dentist to have some teeth fixed and some drawn. At the time he had an impression that he had swallowed one of his teeth, but the dentist, to reasure him, while knowing it to be a fact, denied it and told Mr. Conrady it was only his imagination. He took this for truth and so did not connect the tooth with his illness. It seems now that the tooth was drawn into the iung and caused the laceration which resulted in all the trouble.

VIOLENTLY INSANE.

Queer Conduct of Wm. C. Salisbury,

Dr. Warren Priest, Chief Dispensary physician, committed William C. Salisbury to the Insane Asylum to-day. Fallsbury had a blacksmith shop at 3922 South Broadway and ing up the brick sidewalk in front of his place One of the neighbors asked him what he wa looking for, if he had lost anything, and he replied with an oath that he was looking for giant powder. After tearing up the sidewalk he replaced it. Yesterday morning, about 4 o'clock, he created such a racket in his shop that he aroused two or three of the neighbors, who, upon going there, found him firing up the forge, throwing hammers, horseshoes and other things promiscuously about the place. He capped the climax last evening by building up a fire of boxes, barrels, boards summer at Avon-on-the-Sea.

MANSFIELD'S INACCURATE LIST. George W. King, a 19-Year-Old Boy, On the pages of Jury Commissioner Mansfield's books is to be found the name of Geo W. King. Mr. King, who is a young man not yet 21 years of age, has wondered that he should be requested to serve as juror before he has attained his majority, and cannot known to Col. Mansfield.

Mr. King says: "I was summoned on Tuesday of last week by some deputy whom I do not know to serve as juror. My notice read to 'Geo. W. King of 463 Olive street,' and added below, bartender at 517 Olive street.' We formerly lived at 463 Olive street, but my father having built a couple of new houses, we removed to 4157 Olive street. I went down to the court and stated my age to Judge Edmunds, who excused me. I can give no reason for my being summoned and cannot tell how my name is on the jury panel. I live in St. Louis only three years and was 17 when I came here. My father's name is not identical with mine, his being William B. King. The summons occasioned me worry and some loss of time, for which there is no remuneration, but I wish Commissioner Mansfield would wait until I have the right of suffrage before attempting to make a juror of me." known to Col. Mansfield.

CHINAMEN ARRESTED. Warrants Issued Against Them Becau

They Were Not Registered. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 1.-In accorance with a circular issued by Secretary of the Treasury Carlisle, United States Comdissioner Edmunds has issued warrants for the arrest of six Chinese laborers. The war rants were issued under the act of Congres of Aug. 6, 1882, and not under the Geary act.
The laws of 1882 forbids Chinese to be in this country who are not registered and provided with certificates.
But four of the warrants were served, and in one case the commissioner continued the hearing until another date. Lee Key, a laundryman, and Young Wing and Lee Young, cooks, were given a preliminary hearing and bound over in $500 for a further hearing. of Aug. 6, 1882, and not under the Geary act

JAMES CAMPBELL.

Dealer in Bonds and Stocks, Rialto Bidge OFFERS FOR SALE A

In Denominations of One Thousand Dollars Each, Payable in Gold.

The Union Depot Railroad Co., which now embraces the Benton-Beileforaine, Mound City and New (18th) Eighteenth Street Lines, now in course of contraction, will issue on June 1st, 1893, its Straight

(25) Twenty-Five Year 6-Per-Cent Gold Bonds To the Amount of $3,500,000,

For the following purposes:

$2,000,000 to be held by the MISSISSIPPI VALLEY TRUST COMPANY of St. Louis, trustees for the redemption of bonds outstanding, viz.:

For the construction of projected extensions for which franchises have been obtained and for the reconstruction of the Union Depot Line.

Total mileage, 67 milea.

PINANCIAL STATEMENT. RECEIPTS. EXPENDITURES.

These bonds are being subscribed for by banks to hold against their time de-posits and for their surplus account, because of their great security and the ready market St. Louis affords for them. Parties having one thousand dollars or over to invest for minors or estates will do well to inquire into the merits of this secur-ity before taking mortgages on real estate. The long time the bonds have to run makes them also a very desirable investment for heads of families to put aside for their wives or children, as it will avoid the necessity of renewal or finding a new security at frequent intervals, as is the case in real estate loans. I am now offering the unsubscribed portion of the above $300,000 bonds at a price that will not the purchaser 51/2 per cent on the amount invested. Orders for the above bonds will be received at the Mississippi Valley Trust Co.,

No. 808 North Fourth street, and at the following named banks: GERMAN-AMERICAN BANK, Fourth and Franklin Av. FRANKLIN BANK, Fourth and Morgan Sts. LAFAYETTE BANK, Park Av. and Broadway.

THE SMOKE BUISANCE

If an opinion given by Judge Ewing yester-day is sustained, a new and effective weapon will be put in the hands of those who are attempting to rid Chicago of its smoke nuisance. This weapon is the Court of Chancery, which, the opinion holds, has the ower to crush the smoke ordinance violators. The court granted an injunction restraining Charles F. Mulligan and George H. Bliss from allowing smoke to issue from the chimneys of the Hyde Park Hotel.

remedy at its command, ordinary or extraordinary, prevent."

For a chancery court to refuse to interfere would be a substantial denial ef justice, the court thought, and would result in expensive and vexatious litigation in regard to a wrong which ought not to be borne. The Supreme Court in the case of Harmon against the city of Chicago had held that dense smoke was a nuisance per se, and it therefore followed that any business which filled the neighboring dwellings with smoke was a nuisance which equity will restrain.
In conclusion the court said that the Hyde Park Hotel was no more at fault than any other of the large hotels or buildings of the city, but that this was no reason why the nuisance created by it should longer be borne.

"The decision" said attorney & W. city, but that this was no reason why the nuisance created by it should longer be borne.

"The decision," said Attorney 8. W. Woiseley, who filed the bill, "means a great deal to this city. It means by prompt appeal to a court of chancery the smoke nuisance, which is one of the city's greatest-curses, can be speedily wiped out. Those who are fighting the smoke nuisance are no longer confined to the slow and inadequate remedy of the lower courts but can have every smoke violator enjoined by court of chancery. If the proper steps are taken the smoke ordinance violators cannot pay a small justice court fine and then go on polluting the air. An injunction of a chancery court is a serious matter and no noe would dare knowingly to violate it. If followed up it is a solution of the smoke nuisance question for which every citizen should be thankful." trustees failed to substantiate anything against the moral and religious character of Rev. Easton, as many white people as well as colored testified to his good character as a minister and citizen. He said that in November, 1897, after the election, some of the trustees told Rev. Easton that unless he apologized to them for voting the Democratic ticket he might whistle for his salary or go to the Democrats for it, notwithstanding he had built the church and given one year's salary. He went to the courts and got judgment for $300 and costs. Rev. Easton has filed application at Washington, D. O., for the Consulship at Madagascar, basing his straining Charles F. Mulligan and George H.

Billss from allowing smoke to issue from the chimneys of the Hyde Park Hotel.

The bill was filed by Waiter C. Nelson, who owns a $60,000 residence one block from the hotel, which is on Fifty-first street and in the midst of an aristocratic residence district.
Previous to the filing of the bill C. F. Mulligan & Co. had twice been prosecuted and twice been made to pay the limit of a Justice court fine. The big chimneys, however, continued to pour forth their dense volumes of smoke, and Attorney Wolesley conceived the idea of invoking the aid of a chancery court. The important question was whether or not a court of chancery had jurisdiction, and it was contended that the remedy was clearly one of law for famases. The answer to the bill aiso laid the biame on the engines of the liftnois Central road, and to other large buildings erected in the vicinity. From the evidence, however, the court stated that there was no doubt that the defendant had permitted black smoke and soot to issue from the chimneys, destroying the draperies, carpets and linen of the complainant, and to his constant annoyance and discomfort.
This was affirmed also by the affidavits of a score of well-known citizens who had kept watch on the big chimneys.

"That the complainant has been damaged and seriously annoyed by the smoke from the hotel I entertain no doubt," said the court.
"The more difficult question to my mind is whether this court has the power to enter a restraining order that may result in compeliing the defendants to abandon the use of bituminous coal and to abandon the use of bituminous coal and fo adopt some other and more expensive fuel. It may be possible by the use of the best appliances and great care to burn the proddet of the coal fields of fillnois or any soft coal in furnaces substantially such as the defendants use without serious innonvenience from smoke, and this with ittle, if any, addition to the cost of the present methods of using soft coal.

AN EXCELLENT SEA BOAT. But the Monterey May Not Prove a Good

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 1.—The Mon-terey has proved herself an excellent sea boat under the conditions present during the journey along the coast, but there appears to be ground for doubt as to her efficiency as a fighting machine. According to the statecame apparent to the officers and every member of the crew before the vessel had fairly crossed the bar Sunday that if her guns had to be cast adrift to clear her for action even in fair weather, there would not have been much left of her.

It is said that as soon as the vessel got into open sea her turrets began to slide from slide to slide in a very alarming manner. Furthermore, when the first shot was fired from the "Big Betsy" it made a wreck of the hydraulic gear by which the gun is shifted, notwithstanding the fact that the charge of powder in the gun when fired was only half of the full service charge. Officers who were on board frankly admit that it would have completely wrecked everything inside the turret and disabled both gears if a full charge of $25 pounds of powder had been fired. These defects are said to be the fault of the design. The Union Iron-works carried out the contracts saithfully.
